By Devbrat Patnaik On 15, 2018 - 10:58 AM After much waiting, finally Indian Railways on Tuesday announced its new schedule table for introducing more of its niche trains like Antyodaya Express, Uday Express and Tejas Express in the next 12 months. According to the new trains of the Ministry of Railway (TAG), the railway publication, includes the name of a new Antyodaya Express and two new Tejas Express trains. The new list also includes two new Uday Express trains. Antyodaya Express has all the non-reserved and general buses, while the Tejas Express is the first semi-high and fully air-conditioned train in the country. Uday Express has CA chair car and is a two-story train. The new timetable is scheduled to be launched on the occasion of Independence. As Railways have so far introduced 23 Humsafar Express trains, 10 Antyodaya Express, a Tejas Express and a Uday Express. A list of the new Uday, Antyodaya and Tejas Express have now incorporated into the new TAG. Trains with a maximum permitted speed of 110 km/h will run at 105 km/h to reflect actual running time and improve train punctuality. This will also result in changing arrival and departure times for many trains. However, the Rajdhani, Shatabdi, Tejas, Gatimaan, Humsafar, Garibrath, Duronto; Antyodaya Express trains with 130 km/h MPS were mapped at 130 km/h, he said. The ministry also said that from 2017 to 2018, 57 number of conventional passenger services were replaced by Multiple Electric Units (MEMUs) and Diesel Electric Multiple Units (DEMUs) thus increasing the overall mobility of the system. On Monday, Northern Railway announced the change in the timetable of more than 300 trains while maintaining rail assets. Indian Railways issues a new timetable to take effect from August 15 Indian Railways announced on Monday a change in the schedules of more than 300 trains in its northern zone, from August 15, with a view to the continuous maintenance/repair of railway infrastructure. A statement from Northern Railway said the departure times of 57 trains were advanced, while those of 58 others were postponed. Departure times for 28 trains were advanced by five minutes, while eight trains were advanced by 10 minutes. The schedules of more than 300 trains will change on the new Schedule of the North Railway, which will take effect from August 15, a statement from the region said. Departures from 57 trains were preponed while 58 trains were delayed at the new timetable. Arrivals of 102 trains were preponed while 84 trains were delayed.
